

Certificate in Teaching English for Specific Purposes (TESP)

Teaching Grammar

Teaching Grammar

Teaching grammar is the practice of instructing students on the rules and structure of a language. This includes teaching the various parts of speech, sentence structure, punctuation, and verb tenses.

Teaching grammar is an essential aspect of language instruction as it helps students understand how to form correct sentences, convey meaning accurately, and communicate effectively.

Related Terms:

- Grammar Rules
- Parts of Speech
- Sentence Structure

Example:

Teacher: "Today, we will learn about the present continuous tense. This tense is used to talk about actions happening at the moment of speaking. For example, 'I am reading a book right now.'"

Challenges:

- Keeping students engaged during grammar lessons.
- Addressing common grammar mistakes made by students.
- Adapting grammar instruction to meet the needs of diverse learners.